

THE DULLSTROOM MACNAB TROUT, GAME & FOWL

HIGHLANDS FISH & HUNT

Named after a legendary Scottish poacher turned ghillie. In honour of the ancient tradition of stalking a stag, shooting a grouse and landing a salmon all between sunrise and sunset. You will stalk and have the opportunity to shoot a Blesbok (medium sized indigenous antelope), shoot a walked up Guinea fowl, Francolin or Yellow billed Duck (indigenous game birds) and land a rainbow trout. This takes place on the picturesque O'Grady Estate of more than 1000ha rolling grassland with 11 man made lakes and several kilometres of wild stream fishing, on the Tonteldoos road outside of Dullstroom.

Rates include accompaniment by the land owner, use of all firearms & ammunition, transport on the farm and a wonderful picnic lunch and refreshments.

Accommodation is in well appointed, fully serviced, self catering farm accommodation. Picturesque stone cottage on the edge of a stream and sleeps up to 10 people

Included are 3 excellent meals a day pre-prepared by a renowned local chef. There are additional activities available for family, or for yourself on the property. Horse riding, additional fishing and more.

Join us for something different, and enjoy a great all round Dullstroom experience.

Location

Dullstroom & surrounds

Dates

Year round

Target

Gemsbok, Trout & Gamebirds

Cost

Dependant on package, but from R 3495 for the weekend

